

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -The Republican convention to revise the party rules concluded their labors yesterday. -A new Lutheran church, at a cost of $200,000, is to be built at the corner of Broad and Arch streets. -The fifth anniversary of the Home for Little Wanderers was held in the Academy last evening. -The society for the purpose propose to raise a fund of $25,000 to assist discharged convicts to earn their own support. -The Pennsylvania Reserves are to hold an anniversary celebration in May next. -The residence of Robert Stevenson, at No. 3016 Hamilton street, was ransacked, but not robbed, by thieves yesterday morning.

Domestic Affairs. -The Indiana Legislature, after a brief session of political troubles, has finally adjourned sine die. -Captain Arthur, of the British ship Mary Bangs, has been convicted in the United States Circuit Court, at San Francisco, charged with resisting the custom-house officers and landing a cargo in defiance of the orders of the inspector. -A committee of the New York Legislature is now examining witnesses relative to the recent accident on the Hudson River Railroad at New Hamburg. -Governor Geary has approved the bill creating the Twenty-ninth ward in the city of Philadelphia. -The late Judge Conyngham, of this State, who lost his life on the railroad near Magnolia, Miss., on last Thursday evening, will be buried from his residence, at Wilkesbarre, to-morrow afternoon.

Foreign Affairs. -In accordance with a recent resolution of the State Senate, the Governor yesterday sent a message to that body, accompanied by the Attorney-General's opinion, relative to the power of railroad companies to charge increased tolls upon coal carried. In the House numerous petitions were presented bearing upon the present coal strike. -President Thiers yesterday sent the National Assembly the conditions of peace. -The Republican delegates at Bordeaux have resolved to vote against the treaty of peace, but its ratification is regarded as certain. -A despatch received long after midnight says that another serious disturbance has occurred in Paris, and the heads of Thiers and Favre were demanded by the infuriated populace. -Should a collision occur between the people of Paris and the German soldiery, it is thought that the city will be put under martial law. -The decision of the National Assembly is anxiously looked for by the people of France, and great fears are expressed that the counsels of the Left may prevail and the terms of peace meet with a rejection that will complicate peace prospects. -A despatch from Havre says that the German troops, unaware of the prolongation of the armistice, attacked that city yesterday. The operations were, however, checked by the appearance of a flag of truce from the city with the news, and hostilities at once ceased. -News from various parts of Ireland make it appear that some disturbances have recently occurred, and that several persons were killed. -It is stated that the occupation of the departments south of the Seine ceases immediately after the ratification of peace, and that of the other departments when a stipulated portion of the indemnity is paid; but the fortresses will be occupied until the whole claim is cancelled. -Everything has been prepared for the entry of the Germans into Paris, but the issue of final orders relative to the matter has been reserved until to-day. -The Germans are to enter Paris to-day and remain until peace is ratified. -There were 162 divorces granted in Rhode Island in 1869, or one divorce to every fourteen marriages. -The city of Vicksburg is to grant the use of its wharf in front of the Prentiss House, for three hundred feet to the use of the St. Louis Packet Company, for the purpose of building an elevator. -A lady in Bloomington, Ill., a few days ago, received a telegram announcing the death of her father, and later in the same day her husband received intelligence that his father had just died. -The Boston Journal wonders why the Philadelphians are so desirous of securing a new post office, "inasmuch as the present one is too big for the business of the town." -Captain Hall, of the steamship James A. Gary, reports a huge water spout in Hatteras Inlet, and says the water came down in one solid sheet, and in its descent struck a flock of wild geese, killing all of them instantly. -In Irvington Washington Irving was "Neighbor Arvin" among the yeomen of Sleepy Hollow and the region round about; but as the man who had made their land shine with such a wonderful witchery he was hardly known. -The battle flags of the Vermont State regiments, which have been hanging in the State House at Montpelier, are to be put in glass cases and placed in the vestibule of the Capitol. The Legislature has authorized the Governor to contract for the printing of a historical battle piece, to be placed in the Capitol. -Two one-armed soldiers were arrested in New Haven on Monday for selling blacking without a license. The Register says it takes a month to get a license from the Board of Aldermen. One of the soldiers received eight bullets in his body in front of Petersburg, one of which entered his windpipe and almost deprived him of speech. Are republics always ungrateful?
